

5625

The language of this bill 5625 to redefine surgery could threaten the Electrologists in this state from practicing.

I am an electrologist, I could potentially lose my livelihood. I am very concerned about the language "inserting a probe under the skin to affect tissue". That is what we do when we perform electrolysis.

Thank you,

Cathy Sansone